GOLDEN GATE BY GRNATA

How I would start in the Golden Gate sales team

THE APPROACH

My first priority is to learn the Grnata way of selling: its policies, approvals and standard of client care. Within that framework I would build conversations with people who already trust me, and turn them into viewings and decisions. Targets are agreed with the sales lead in the first week.

DAYS 1 TO 14

Learn the Grnata way

Policies first, then product

- Induction: Grnata sales policies, pricing and approval limits, reservation and contract steps, and the RERA code of conduct.
- RERA licence: enrol in the sales agent course at BIBF in the first week; Grnata submits the application with my contract, and RERA processing takes about five working days.
- Product: Skyline and Cityline, the eight layouts from a 49 sqm studio to a 264 sqm four-bedroom, furnishing, three years of Grnata management and the ten-year structural warranty.
- Shadowing: join senior colleagues on visits to the show floor and note the questions buyers ask most.

DAYS 15 TO 45

Build the pipeline

Start with people who know me

- Government and corporate network: officials and managers I have worked with, and HR teams who house executives and their families.
- Physicians and professionals: relationships built over years in the medical field.
- Gulf buyers: Saudi and GCC families who spend weekends in Bahrain and look for a furnished, managed home.
- Market study: visit Cityscape Bahrain (24 to 28 November 2026) to learn competing offers and the questions buyers bring.
- Materials and follow-up: a short presentation for each buyer group, approved by Grnata marketing before use, and every lead logged in the CRM with a next step and date.

DAYS 46 TO 90

Viewings to decisions

Earn the decision

- Family viewings: a home here is usually chosen by the whole family, so I offer evening and Saturday viewings where everyone can attend.
- Clear answers: ownership, management and handover explained exactly as Grnata confirms them, with nothing promised beyond that.
- Weekly review: leads, objections heard and follow-ups due, reviewed with my manager.
- Personal introductions: stay in touch through visits and majlis gatherings, and welcome introductions to family and friends.
- Month 3 report: activity, lessons and a plan for the next quarter.

PROPOSED ACTIVITY TARGETS (TO BE AGREED WITH THE SALES LEAD)

40	10	30	15
qualified conversations by day 45	listing presentations delivered by day 45	meetings held between days 46 and 90	viewings hosted between days 46 and 90

These are activity measures I commit to. Sales targets follow once I know the inventory, the pricing and the buyers.

WEEKLY RHYTHM

Saturday
Prepare the week's plan and lead list, then family viewings by appointment

Sunday
Agree the plan with the team and start the week's calls

Monday to Wednesday
Client meetings and viewings

Thursday
Update CRM, follow-ups, thank-you messages and the week's results
